

Printing And Hanging specifications

All applicants must adhere to the printing and hanging specifications of Through The Lens Festival of Photography (TTL). We can offer guidance as necessary for all successfully selected images.

- All successful applicants submitting images to TTL must be responsible for their own print and framing costs.
- All successfully selected images must be printed to a high professional standard as assessed by TTL's curator Mariam Sudzhadinova. Non-professional prints may be rejected and therefore not eligible for participation.
- Printing paper must be good quality, standard white photo paper. TTL will make every effort to accommodate non standard printing materials if deemed acceptable by our curator Mariam Sudzhadinova.
- Print size is limited to A1 (59.4 x 84.1cm / 23.39 x 33.11 inches)
- Applicants have the right to withdraw their work prior to hanging. Once the images are exhibited applicants may not withdraw their images until 9th September 2018
- Images successfully selected and exhibited remain the property of the applicants and TTL accept no responsibility for damages or theft of any images submitted.
- All works exhibited must be collected on Sunday 9th September. Although every effort will be taken to ensure the work is returned, no storage facilities will be offered to works not collected. All works remain the responsibility of the applicant.
